Seeking Candidates to Serve on Our Board of Directors

MQHS is recognized as a non-profit housing society that provides a range of affordable housing options for residents of the Fraser Valley region of British Columbia.

Are you looking for a challenging and rewarding volunteer opportunity?

If so, we'd love to hear from you!

MQHS' Board of Directors work in partnership with its Executive Director to ensure the success of the organization. MQHS Board Members actively participate in quarterly meetings that are approximately 3 hours in length where they share their talents and focus on governance leadership; financial oversight and strategic planning.

We are looking for enthusiastic, committed, and resourceful individuals with experience and knowledge in any of the following areas:

- Finance and accounting
- Construction
- Legal Expertise
- Human Resources
- Investment Management
- Real Estate
- Risk Management

Please submit resume to MQHS
Via email to admin@mqhs.ca or fax 604-820-2175
MQHS thanks all applicants for their interest, only those selected for an interview will be contacted.
