Dear Board of Directors:

Re: Audit Findings

This letter has been prepared to assist you with your review of the financial statements of Mamele'awt Queesome Housing Society for the year ending March 31, 2023. We look forward to meeting with you and discussing the matters outlined below.

Audit Status
We have completed the audit of the financial statements.

Significant Matters Arising

There were no changes to the audit plan (as previously presented to you in the 'Planning Letter').

Other Matters
We have not identified any other significant matters that we wish to bring to your attention at this time.

.../2

Uncorrected Misstatements
We accumulated uncorrected misstatements that we identified during our audit and communicated them to management. A list of the immaterial uncorrected misstatements aggregated is attached.

Significant Deficiencies in Internal Control
A deficiency in internal control exists when a control is designed, implemented or operated in such a way that it is unable to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements in the financial statements on a timely basis, or when a control necessary to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements in the financial statements on a timely basis is missing.

A significant deficiency in internal control is defined as a deficiency or combination of deficiencies in internal control that, in the auditor's professional judgment, is of sufficient importance to merit the attention of the Board of Directors.

To identify and assess the risks of material misstatement in the financial statements, we are required to obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit. This understanding is used for the limited purpose of designing appropriate audit procedures. It is not used for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control and, as a result, we do not express any such opinion. The limited purpose also means that there can be no assurance that all significant deficiencies in internal control, or any other control deficiencies, will be identified during our audit.

Please see a copy of the management letter that states the significant deficiencies in internal control found, if applicable.

Written Representations
In a separate communication, as attached, we have requested a number of written representations from management in respect to their responsibility for the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

Other Audit Matters of Governance Interest
We did not identify any other matters to bring to your attention at this time.

We would like to thank management and staff for the assistance they provided to us during the audit.

We hope the information in this audit findings letter will be useful. We would be pleased to discuss them with you and respond to any questions you may have.

This letter was prepared for the sole use of the Board of Directors of Mamele'awt Qweesome Housing Society to carry out and discharge their responsibilities. The content should not be disclosed to any third party without our prior written consent, and we assume no responsibility to any other person.

Yours truly,

Dear Mr. Joe Frank:

We are providing this letter in connection with your audit of the financial statements of Mamele'awt Qweesome Housing Society for the year ended March 31, 2023, and for the purpose of expressing an opinion as to whether the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position, results of operations, and cash flow of Society in accordance with the financial reporting provisions of the AHMA.

We acknowledge that your examination was planned and conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards so as to enable you to express an opinion on the financial statements. We understand that while your work includes an examination of the accounting system, internal control, and related data to the extent you considered necessary in the circumstances, it is not designed to identify, nor can it necessarily be expected to disclose, fraud, shortages, errors and other irregularities, should any exist.

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. An item is considered material, regardless of its monetary value, if it is probable that its omission from or misstatement in the financial statements would influence the decision of a reasonable person relying on the financial statements.

We confirm, to the best of our knowledge and belief, as of the date noted above, the following representations made to you during your audit:

A. Financial statements disclosure and presentation

1. We acknowledge that we are responsible for the fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with the financial reporting provisions of the AHMA applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year. We have fulfilled our responsibilities, as set out in the terms of the audit engagement dated March 31, 2023, for the preparation of the financial reporting provisions of the AHMA.

2. The financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Association as at March 31, 2023, and the results of its operations and its cash flow for the year then ended, in accordance with the financial reporting provisions of the AHMA. All disclosures required by the financial reporting provisions of the AHMA have been made.

3. The significant accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the financial statements are fully and fairly described in the financial statements.

   Significant assumptions used in making estimates, including those measured at fair value, are reasonable.

In preparing the Financial Statements in accordance with the financial reporting provisions of the AHMA, management makes judgments and assumptions about the future and uses estimates. The completeness and appropriateness of the disclosures related to estimates are in accordance with the financial reporting provisions of the AHMA. The Association has appropriately disclosed in the Financial Statements the nature of measurement uncertainties that are material, including all estimates where it is reasonably possible that the estimate will change in the near term and the effect of the change could be material to the Financial Statements.

4. The Financial Statements are free of material errors and omissions.

   We believe that the effects of any uncorrected Financial Statement misstatements pertaining to the current period presented, are immaterial, both individually and in the aggregate, to the Financial Statements taken as a whole.

5. We have reviewed and approved all journal entries you prepared or changed, account codes you determined or changed, transactions you classified, and accounting records you prepared or changed.

B. Ownership / Rights and Obligations

1. The Association has good title to, or lease interest in, all assets reported in the financial statements and these assets are free from liens and encumbrances, except as disclosed in the financial statements.

2. All liabilities reported in the financial statements represent legal debts of the Association at the date of the financial statements.

C. Valuation / Measurement

1. The carrying value and classification of the Association's assets and liabilities appropriately reflect management's intent and ability to carry out its plans.

2. Any fair value measurements or disclosures in the financial statements are based on assumptions that appropriately reflect management's intent and ability to carry out its plans.

3. Adequate provisions have been recorded in the accounts for all anticipated material losses.

4. The nature of all material measurement uncertainties has been appropriately disclosed in the financial statements, including all estimates where it is reasonably possible that the estimate will change in the near term and the effect of the change would be material to the financial statements.

D. Completeness

1. All material assets owned by the Association are reported in the financial statements.

2. All goods shipped or services rendered prior to the date of the financial statements have been reported as sales in this fiscal period, except that no amount has been included in sales and accounts receivable for goods shipped on consignment, on approval, or subject to repurchase agreements.

3. No abnormal returns have been received since the date of the financial statements (or are expected) in respect to goods shipped prior to that date.

4. Inventory does not include:
   - items not paid for and for which no liability has been reported in the financial statements;
   - goods on consignment from others; or
   - goods invoiced to customers.

5. All charges during the fiscal period to property and equipment and to assets under capital lease represent actual additions. No expenditures of a capital nature have been charged to expense.

6. All items of property and equipment sold or dismantled and all capital lease terminations during the fiscal period have been properly reported in the financial statements.

7. All assets with a limited life are being depreciated, amortized, or otherwise written off as a charge to income over their estimated useful lives in a systematic and rational manner.

8. There are no material liabilities or contingent liabilities arising from environmental matters that have not been disclosed to you. We have considered the effect of environmental matters, and confirm that the relevant assets, liabilities, and commitments are appropriately recognized, measured, and disclosed in the financial statements.

12. At the date of the financial statements, there were no material contingent liabilities other than any disclosed in the financial statements, and all claims and possible claims have been disclosed to you, whether or not such claims have been discussed with our lawyers.

13. At the date of the financial statements, the Association had no unusual commitments or contractual obligations of any sort which were not in the ordinary course of business or which might have an adverse effect on the Association other than any disclosed in the financial statements.

14. There were no material transactions during the fiscal period that have not been properly reflected in the accounts underlying the financial statements.

15. We have disclosed to you, and the Association has complied with, all aspects of contractual agreements that could have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of non-compliance, including all covenants, conditions or other requirements of all outstanding debt.

16. The Association is not economically dependent on another entity other than any disclosed in the financial statements.

E. Existence / Occurrence

1. No assets or liabilities that do not exist have been recorded in the financial statements.

.../4

2. All revenue and expense transactions reported in the financial statements occurred during the fiscal period.

F. Fraud and Error

1. We are responsible for the design and implementation of internal controls that are designed to prevent and detect fraud and error. We believe that the Association has a system of internal control adequate to permit the preparation of accurate financial statements in accordance with the financial reporting provisions of the AHMA.

2. We believe that the effects of the uncorrected financial statements misstatements aggregated by you during the audit are immaterial, both individually and in the aggregate, to the financial statements taken as a whole.

3. No allegations of fraud or suspected fraud affecting the financial statements have been communicated to us by employees, former employees, analysts, regulators, or others.

5. We are not aware of any fraud or suspected fraud affecting the entity involving:
   - management,

Dear Janice:

Re: Audit of the 2023 Financial Statements

During the course of our audit of the financial statements for the year ended as of March 31, 2023, we did not identify any significant matters, which needed to be formally drawn to management's attention. Minor matters were discussed verbally with management.

The objective of an audit is to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement and it is not designed to identify matters that may be of interest to management in discharging its responsibilities. In addition, an audit cannot be expected to disclose defalcations and other irregularities and it is not designed to express an opinion as to whether the systems of internal control established by management have been properly designed or have been operating effectively.

We would like to express our appreciation for the co-operation and assistance, which we received during the course of our audit from you and Nadine.

This communication is prepared solely for the information of management and is not intended for any other purpose. We accept no responsibility to a third party who used this communication.

Yours truly,
